with gift cards for healthy foods. Participants agree to purchase only foods outlined by their nutritionist and provide both the receipts and the card back to the program for verification. This encourages participants to spend on fresh fruits and vegetables that might otherwise be too expensive to consume. We want people who are disadvantaged to Live Well. To this end, the Center provides a space that offers exercise equipment, complimentary therapies like massage, acupuncture and chiropractic all supplied by volunteer providers. Exercise is one of the most important determinants of health and well-being. Often the disenfranchised and the disadvantaged don't have safe spaces to get exercise. Poverello's Live Well Center provides this type of space for anyone with HIV in South Florida. @livewellsfl.www.poverello.org. We want people who are poor and disadvantaged to be well. To this end, we provide programming that supports their health goals. Through referrals, educational programs, screenings and follow-up, the Poverello Center participants with HIV achieved 85% viral suppression among its clients with HIV in 2015. That means participants in our programs already meet the national 2020 goal for HIV prevention for positives. Our values include: Understanding, Stewardship, Service, Volunteerism, Quality and Health Education. We operate a social enterprise, the Poverello Thrift Store and an e-bay store in order to earn some of our operating expenses ourselves. People donate their gently used items because they know we'll convert that resource into action to prevent food insecurity in our community.
